Ácido is a South American influenced restaurant, and we are happy to welcome you into a vibrant meeting point, either you are here to socialize over a drink, starter or a main course. Our concept is built on social eating with dishes that are perfect to share around the table, such as ceviche, nachos and tacos. Continue with a tasteful main course like Pescado, and finish off with our delightful signature dessert Churros –and you are in for a solid South American meal.

At Ácido you can enjoy well composed cocktails, perfectly matched to our South American flavors, all prepared by our skilled bartenders. We encourage you to try our signature cocktails along with the social eating concept. This will give you an experience far from the traditional way of dining
